

RIVERSIDE

A photograph of a river with a rocky bank. The water is dark and reflects the bright sun, which is visible in the upper right corner. The sun's rays create a starburst effect. The word "RIVERSIDE" is written in large, white, sans-serif capital letters across the top of the image. The "R" is slightly larger than the other letters. The background shows a rocky riverbank with some greenery and a clear sky.

Lets Go Vikings!

Band

This year is crazy cool. Being the schools first male drum major in a long time I was the star of the show. The cheerleaders were fantastic in their supporting roles on the field.

By: Jared Jones

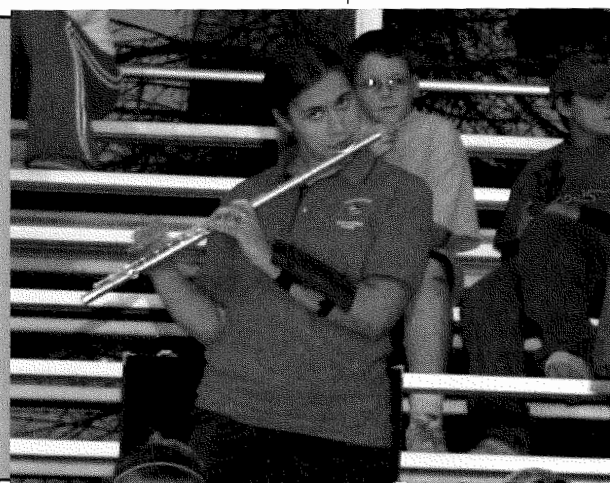

This year we are enjoying the company of Shrek and his lovely wife Fiona. The performance was a great success.

Band is a blast this year. We are marching and playing in the field show with the theme of "Shrek." Jimmy Armillay took the lead as Shrek and Tara Rhodes got the lead female part as Princess Fiona. Band was a blast this season.

12 Nick Pecuch makes a safe slide to third base.

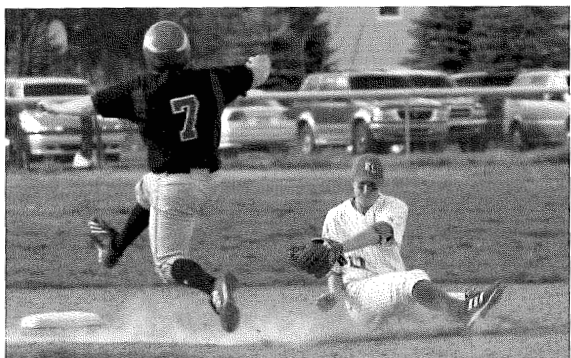

The Riverside Viking Varsity Baseball team came into the season with high expectations, even after losing two year starter Shawn Ward to an injury during basketball season. After a rigorous offseason schedule that included lifting and conditioning, the team was ready for the big season ahead. The senior squad included Danny Charette, Ryan Fratzola, Calvin Pacholec, Nick Pecuch, Angus Neary, Lou O'Donnell, Casey Cicale, Tim Jurnak and Jon Vishnesky. This team unified through the hard times and possibly could still be one of the best in Riverside history. The wins and losses were no account of how much effort each and every member of the team put in this season.

Back to the Bases

#7 Ryan Fratzola takes a giant leap for 2nd base.

Lou O'Donnell #20 awaits a throw from the mound.

Second Baseman Senior Jon Vishnesky # 10 reaches for the ball to get an out at first.

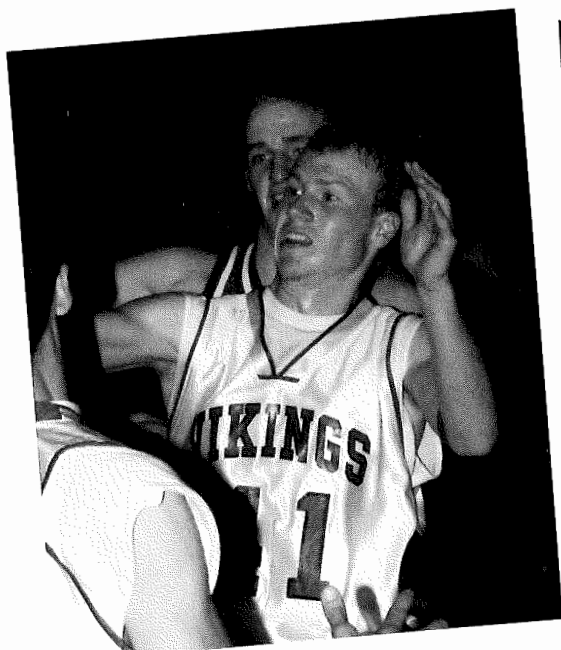

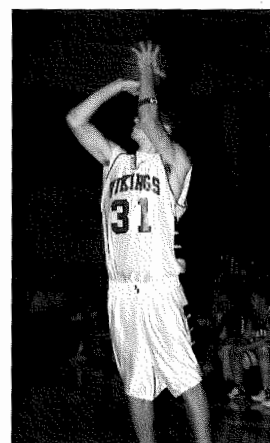

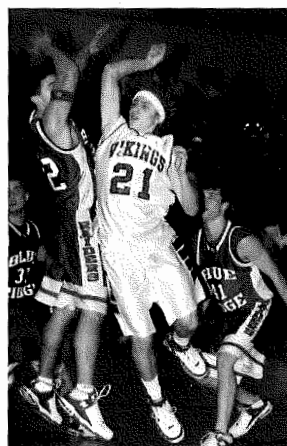

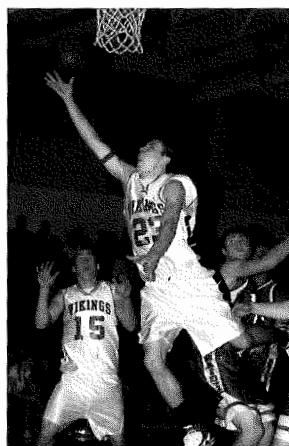

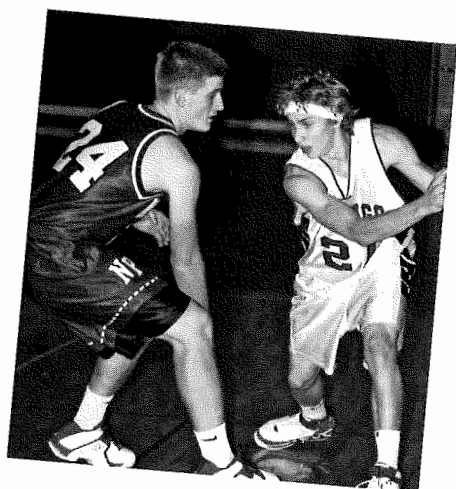

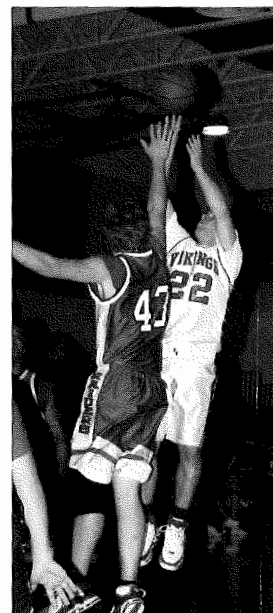

Angus Neary listens as the team takes a huddle.

Basketball is almost over and we're having a good year. From the beginning we got along and was there for each other. Today we're playing Old Forge for the second time. The first time we played them was one of the best things that ever happened to me. There was so many people around, it felt unbelievable. No matter what the outcome of this year will be, I will always remember the people that I played with as well as the staff. This year has been great and I hope the rest is just as good. None of us will forget the time we spent on the Riverside Studio basketball court.

Senior basketball players:
Dan Charette, Calvin Pacholec, Mike Mekilo, Shawn Ward and Jon Vishensky.

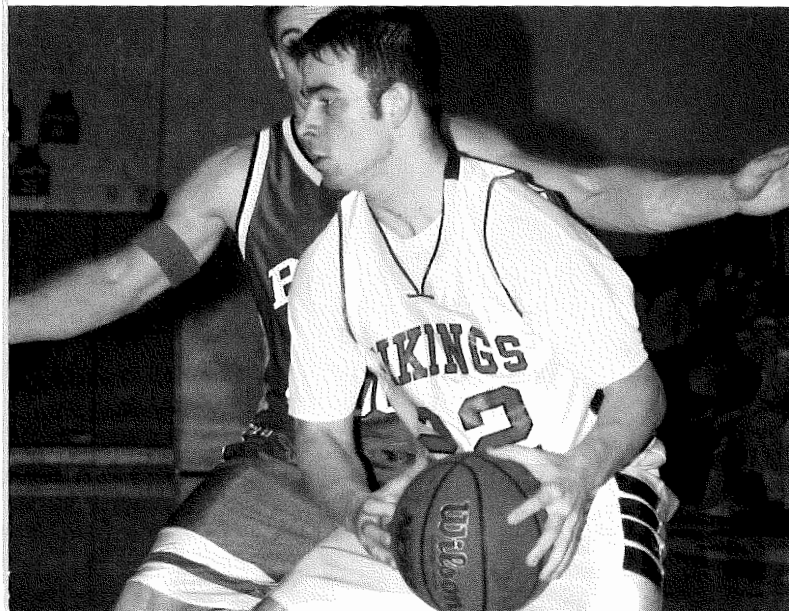

The team made it all the way through to the second round of the play offs and ended their season with a loss to GAR. The team will remember the great times that they had on and off the court. These are the memories that will be with the senior boys for the rest of their lives.

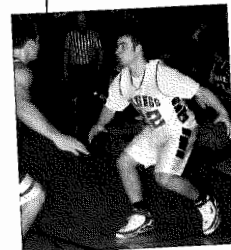

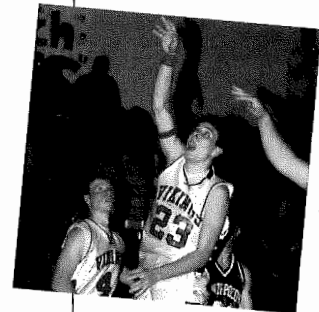

And its good for 3!

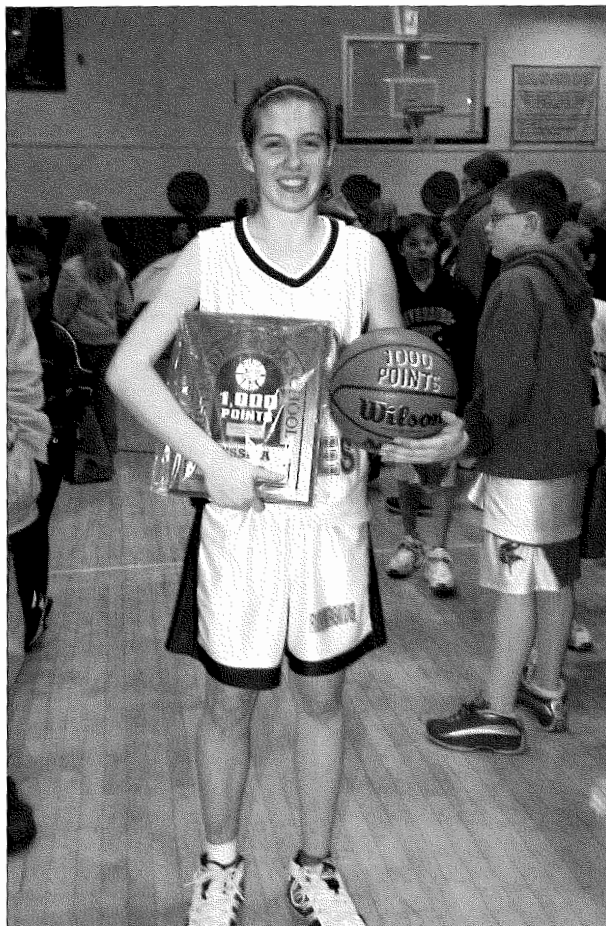

"Take every game as it is your last and play to win as well as to people around you better as well as yourself."

- Coach Morgan

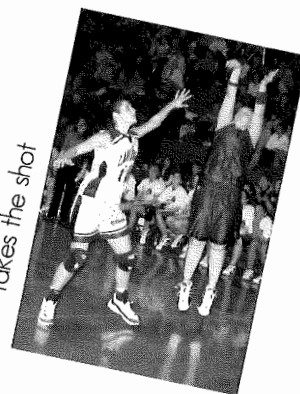

Scoring my 1,000 points was a memory I will never forget. It was such a surprise, no one knew it was coming, not even my parents. I can't even describe how it felt when I heard "Jessica Plisko just scored her 1,000th point." All of my hard work and practice finally paid off. This is a season I will never forget.

year's season. "I kept

Which Star is the loudest?

Throughout the season the squad is becoming closer with every game. Team work is a major factor in the production.

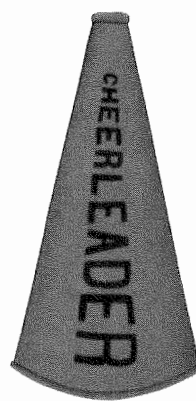

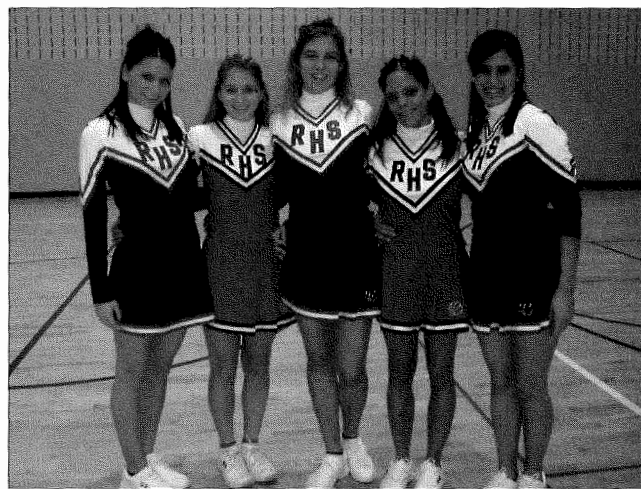

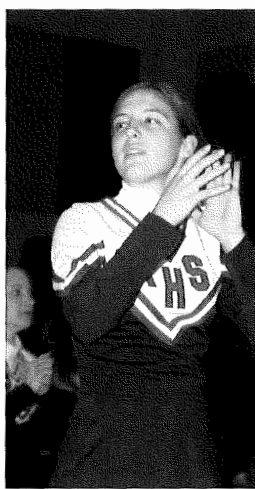

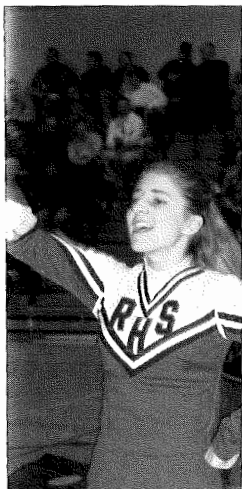

Co stars Dana Lawrence & Adrienne Pisano give up their position to Star Cheryl Sandly for the 2006-2007 season.

GETTIN' CRAZY

Homemade shirts, ribbons & red and blue stars reflects Viking spirit.

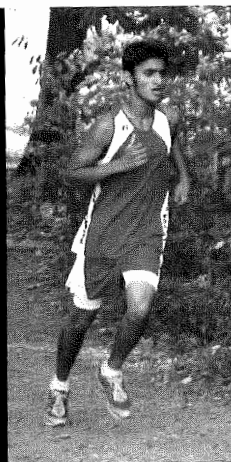

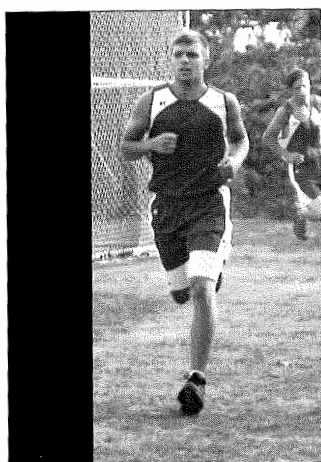

The top five stars on the cheerleading squad are seniors Sarah Haberek, Dana Lawrence, Jessica Plisko, Adrienne Pisano, and Karla McKeel.

The season started in early July at Riverside East Studio. All the stars gave all they had to learn from the ECA stars. The summer practices came and went. Now we're in the middle of the season. Every girl is giving 110% to show their school spirit.

Going the Distance

As the year went on, the number of cross country team members increased, and we ended up with full boys' and girls' teams. The new members were "non-runners" and came from a variety of backgrounds, including cheerleaders and b-ball players. By the end of the season, the team became a close-knit pack of runners.

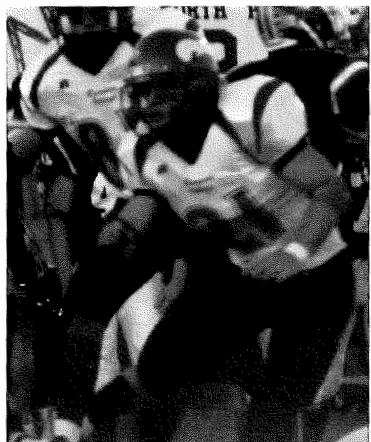

Coming into the '05 season, everyone knew we'd have to work extremely hard in order to replace the team from the year before. August came and triples were grueling but we pulled through eager to begin the season. There weren't many of us and things sometimes might not have looked so great, but we gave a great effort and we will always remember the good times we had and the experience of playing football, which is incomparable to any other. Great job Vikes!

Was all of the hard work and time you put it when you marched out onto the field?*

You were the girl
down the 50 yard line.
into being Miss Viking worth*

When the first football game of the season arrived, I was announced to the Riverside fans as the 2005-2006 Miss Viking, and it was the best feeling in the world. I couldn't believe I was "Miss Viking", something I have dreamt about since I was a little girl. All of the hard work and time needed for this position was rewarded by the cheers and smiles from the fans. Being Miss Viking has taught me to believe in myself and never give up my dreams. I strongly believe dreams do come true because my greatest dream was fulfilled the moment I stepped onto the field.

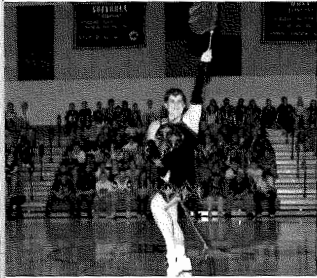

Feature Dancer:
Lynnae Indorf

Lynnae, Some people argue cheerleading is not a sport. After four years of cheerleading, do you feel you should be considered an athlete?

"Yes, I think cheerleaders should be considered as athletes. They put in just as much hard work as any other athlete on a sports team."

Ashley, What advice or words of encouragement would you give to younger aspiring performers?

"Be unique and try your hardest to succeed."

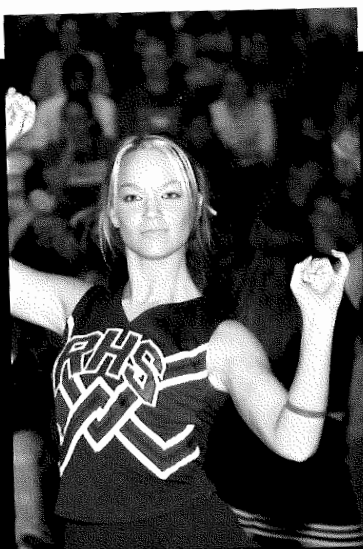

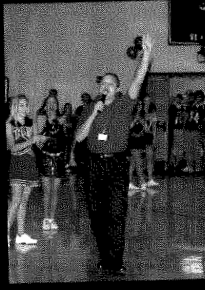

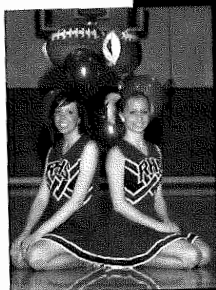

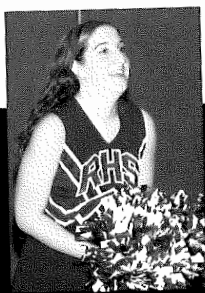

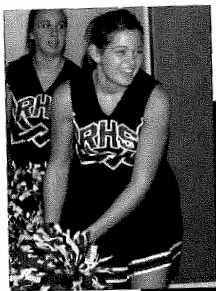

Feature Twirler:
Ashley Kovalik

Nikki, What advice would you give to others planning to try out?

"The advice I'd give to others planning to try out is to have confidence, practice, and have fun. Having confidence in yourself is the key in try outs. You have to believe you are good and that you can do it. If you have confidence you can achieve anything. Just remember practice makes perfect."

The girl's tell the boys what kind of stars they really are.

S.J. Kania, one of the Co-Captains, contributed a lot to the team this year. His ability to hit a big drive intimidated some of his opponents. He started off a little shaky, but bounced back fast by playing some of the best golf he ever played. He really saved it all for his last year.

Nick Pecuch brought this golf team to life. Not only did he hit a long ball, but he brought the humor also. Nick always made the team laugh. He told funny jokes, said many funny things, and played an outstanding harmonica. The best harmonica sessions were on the bus going to the Bishop O'Hara match and coming home from Honesdale.

Co-Captain Shawn Ward and Mike Mekilo brought a lot to the team. Both contributed with their style of play and determination to win. Both players showcased their best for their last season. Shawn always hit straight drives and fantastic shots into the green. Mike was a great putter. He made a lot of key putts from quite some distances. Also, Mike hit a lot of good bunker shots. Whenever Mike found the sand, he had no problem getting the sand saved. Both helped the team make playoffs.

Tim Jurnack, Mike Shimko, and Jeff Orzel were dedicated members of the golf team. Mike always said funny stuff, Tim always laughed at everything, and Jeff made everyone laugh.

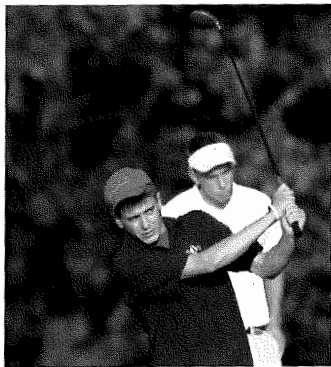

All the alternates showed their dedication by coming to all golf functions, such as practice and matches. Their dedication and support to the team will not be overlooked

Overcoming B a r r i e r s

with PRIDE

Jon Vishnesky had a good season this year. He contributed with a lot of shots, especially around the green. It was common to see Jon hit a fantastic chip shot close to the hole. Also, when the team was down, he was a good motivator. His words picked up the whole team's spirit.

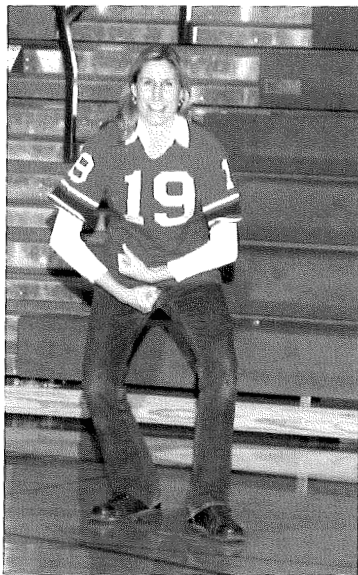

Calvin Paholic, the newest member of the team, helped a lot with key wins and fantastic shots. He came back and won his match against Mis Valley. His win against Mid Valley helped clinch that much needed win.

The golf team was led by Co-Captains Shawn Ward and S.J. Kania and Coaches Jack Helcoski and Bill Pabst.

Senior Stars

21 Kim Pham

13 Jess Plisko

12 Nikki Quick

Jessica Plisko is the lead off hitter for the Lady Vikes. She is not only the lead off batter but she is also a leader on the field. As a freshman she played right field and for the rest of her softball career she made her home in the left field. No one dares to tag up on a pop fly to left field because Plisko has a cannon and would throw them out. Plisko received 1st team all star for left field in her senior year and 2nd team all star in her senior year. It's going to be hard to replace her next year.

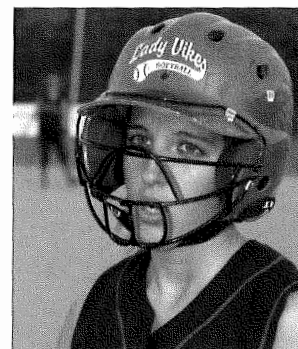

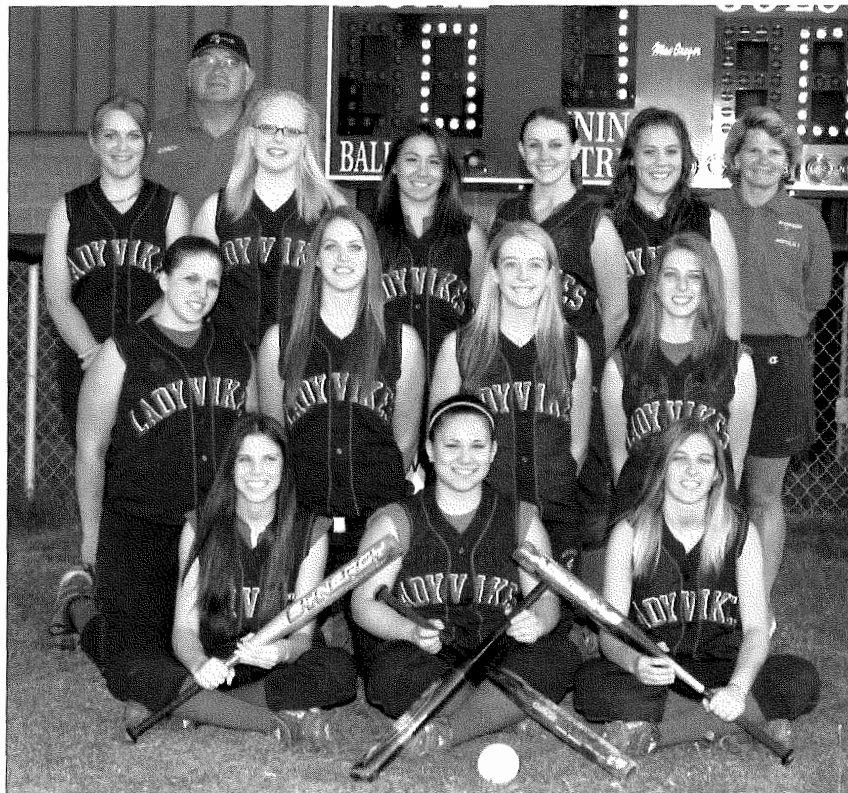

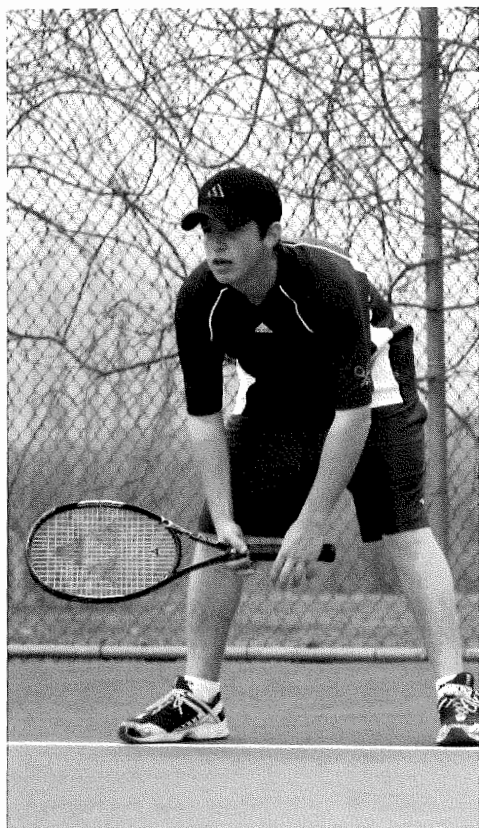

Kim Pham really has stepped up this season. After coming back in 10th grade from a knee injury, she has shown no sign of weakness. For the past two years she has batted in the 4th spot, and takes the position of second base where she received 2nd team all star last year. This season she is flawless; turning double plays and coming up with big hits in key situations. Her love for the game has truly shown with the strong work ethic at every practice and every game.

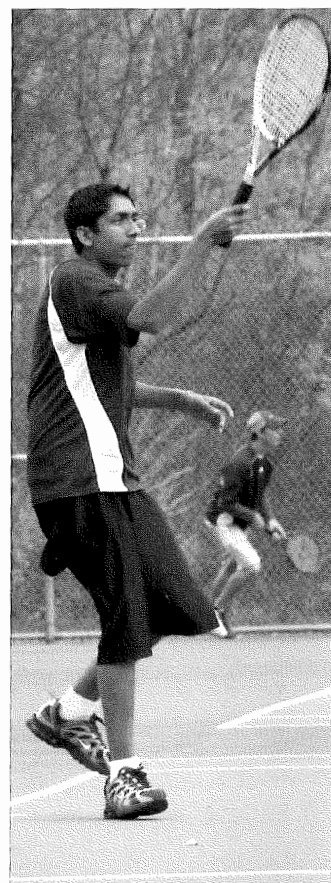

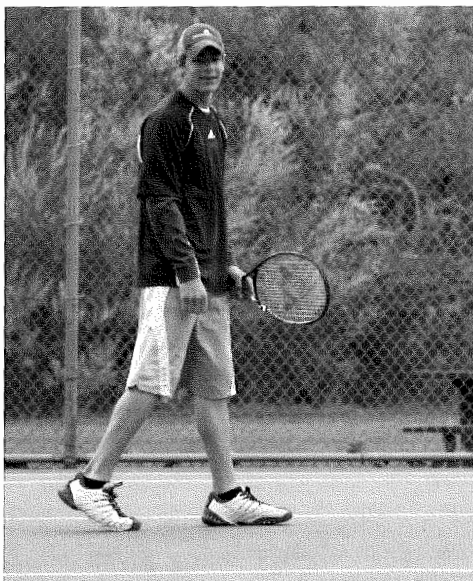

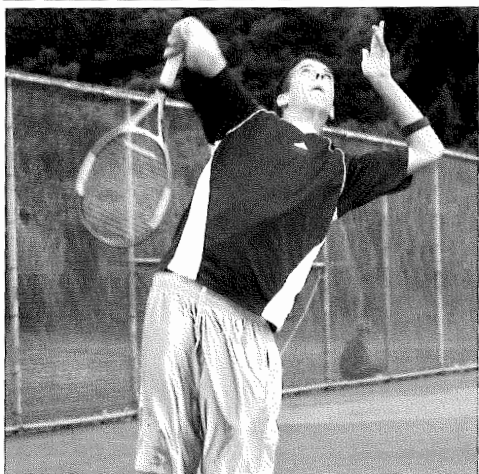

Nikki Quick has taken the outfield by storm with her impressive throw-outs from center field to home plate. She not only has the best arm on the team she is the fastest. Nikki Quick batted in the ninth position, so the team would have a fast runner on the bases for the lead off hitter. She really stepped up in her senior year, and became a leader.

It's in, It's out, It's Over

After losing five of six starters from last year, this year's tennis team had a rebuilding season. The singles starters were all playing in their first high school matches, while the doubles players were playing their first matches ever. Despite the young team, they had a fairly productive season with everyone improving throughout the year. Coach John Radzwillowicz organized the team as follows:

- |                        |                                     |
|------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| Singles: 1. Jake Borer | Doubles: 1. John Moran/Corey Furdin |
| 2. Parakh Dani         | 2. Jimmy Gordeziani/Chris Milewski  |
| 3. Joe Howey           |                                     |

We are looking forward to preparing for a good season next year.

Is Parakh playing tennis or hot potato?

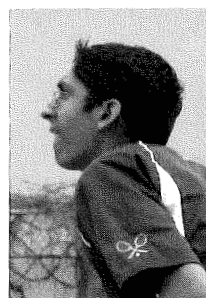

Parakh is all about the game. As a senior he has put everything he has into his matches. As you can tell from the picture above he stops at nothing to hit the tennis ball.

Keeping Up The

P a c e

This year's track season was a moment in itself, especially during the rainy, cold meets and hard practices. Two of the best assets to our team were Kim Eastman and Melissa Woody. We'll never forget Kim screaming and raging after Andrea to run in the 4x1 during practice. In the field, Ashley Kovalik pumped out her best efforts and kept our throwers smiling. Our graduating seniors brought a lot to our team this season, making it a memorable one.

Melissa Woody setting the pace for a perfect run.

Read Across America was started at Riverside Studios by a very important person, Mrs. Ann Marie Ermolovich and then chaired by Mrs. Kathryn Beganich. This year, directors and stars of the studio took on the positions of reading to younger inspiring actors.

In The Spotlight

As always the cat was played by senior performer Ashley Kovalik and she will be missed in the studios for years to come.

Donating is just one part of the lives of these stars. On March 10, 2006 several stars took time out of their schedules to donate blood for the local Red Cross.

With one last night in the spotlight, the senior cheerleaders performed in their last performance together in the production of "Girls Just Wanna Have Fun." The production was a great success. # THE AWARD GOES TO Jared Jones was the Master of Ceremonies at this year's Class Day, held on June 8, 2006. Many awards and scholarships were awarded to deserving stars of the senior class. Before the Alma Mater was sung by the members of the Class of 2006 and the assembly, the Mantle was passed from Senior class President Jared Jones, and happily accepted by Junior class President Ryan Kavulich. Congratulations to all award winners!

Salute to Riverside

Lynsey Peters

As we look back and see
All the memories we had
Some were so good
While others were bad

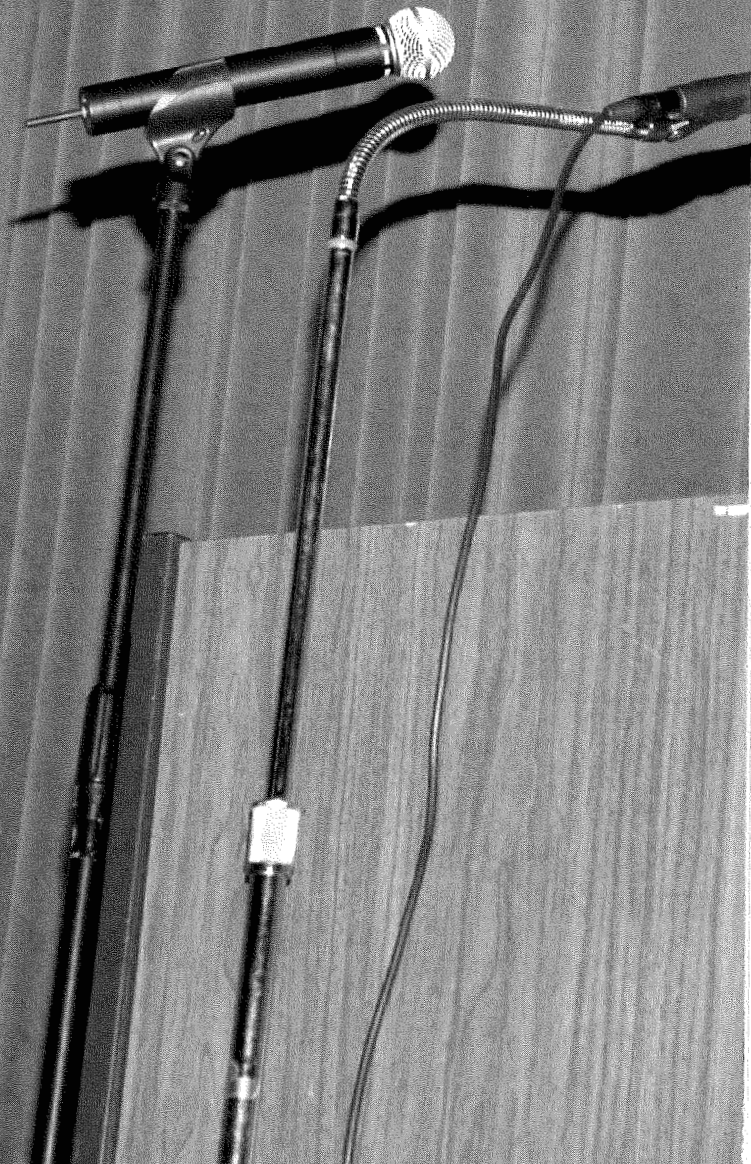

When it comes to friends
We've lost a few
But in the end
We gained some new

Some old friends left
And by new ones replaced
But their marks on our lives
Were never erased

Riverside has changed
All of our hearts
We knew that it would
Right from the start

Compassionate teachers
Gave us some slack
Even when students
Didn't quite have the knack

And Now as we leave
Fair Riverside
In our hearts there's a void
We cannot deny

As we are celebrating tonight
The tears well in our eyes
Because we all know
These are bittersweet goodbyes

We're leaving behind
We've grown to know
And I, for one,
Am reluctant to go

We knew that we would have to leave
All of these familiar places
The faculty can see the thanks
In all of our smiling faces

Through the years
The teachers watched us grow
And now our true colors
We have come to show

Those colors will always be Red and navy blue
Because to Riverside
We will always be true

So thank you to everyone
Who helped us along the way
There's a special place in our hearts
Where you and Riverside- will forever stay

To the Riverside Jr./Sr. High School junior class, we, the graduating seniors of two thousand and six, leave our empty lunch accounts, Mr. Kennedy's power points, old polo's and khaki's, excuses to get our early, camouflage shirts, empty parking spots, and the infamous word "DOUBT". Most of all, we leave behind our good times and unforgettable memories, hoping your senior year is as enjoyable as ours has been. The only thing the senior class can not leave behind is Mrs. Ludwikowski, an inspirational teacher who will greatly be missed.

Signed on this eighth day of June, two thousand and six.

By: Adrienne Pisano and Jeff Orzel

The setting is in the waiting area of a Doctor's office in the year 2026. Lynnae's sitting reading a magazine entitled, 'Enhance Your Body' as Lindsey walks in and takes a seat.

Lindsey: I hate sitting in the Doctor's office.

Lynnae: Me too.

Lindsey: What are you here for?

Lynnae: I'm getting body enlargements.

Lindsey: Oh, so you're getting a boob.

Lynnae: hand and feet enhancements, since mine are so small. It's a new type of surgery. Why are you here?

Lindsey: I've been having a lot of panic attacks lately.

Lynnae: There was a girl in my high school who always had panic attacks. She even tried getting out of a history test in Mr. Hyduchak's class with one. Ms. Pliss had to wheel her out of the room.

Lindsey: That was me!

Lynnae: Lindsey Trilio? It's me, Lynnael

Lindsey: Wow, it's been a long time! Do you remember everything that happened at Riverside? We had some good times.

Lynnae: Remember all those nicknames? Ryan Fratzala was Tippy and Byron Webb was Beavis.

Lindsey: Tim Cravetts was huge like Arnold Schwazenger...or so he thought.

Lynnae: Right, so we started calling him Arnie. He was nice though.

Lindsey: So was Mike Kolved.

Lynnae: Mr. Kennedy gave him the nickname, Big Mike.

Lindsey: John Blue was a good guy too.

Lynnae: Don't you mean Green?

Lindsey: I don't know, it was some kind of color. However, I do know, Amber Scarnato earned the nickname Mom.

Lynnae: And remember the LaRusso twins, Adam and Eric?

Lindsey: I remember I could never tell them apart.

Lynnae: Joe Bianca made up his own nickname. He went around telling everyone to call him 'JJ. Bianca.'

Lindsey: And remember Ned? (Pause)

Lynnae: No, it was Ted!

Lindsey: Wait, maybe...Fred?

Lynnae: Ed! His name was Ed Brogenski! He went by various names.

Lindsey: And what about Ed Lokutal

Lynnae: What about him?

Lindsey: Ed and Megan Wickizer went out for a few days? Weeks maybe? It didn't last very long.

Lynnae: Another class couple was Maria Agular and George Toth.

Lindsey: They couldn't keep their hands off each other. The lip lock action was constant in the hall everyday. I guess that's why they won the class couple award.

Lynnae: Jess Plisko and Jonny Vishnesky were together too. That was surprising.

Lindsey: Ryan Fratzala and Nikki Quick had a lot of troubles. Nikki would put up her claws for any girl who came within two feet of Ryan, with good reason.

Lynnae: Sarah Haberek and Alicia Mulea were pretty much married to their boyfriends. You would never see them out without their precious men.

Lindsey: It wasn't just those two girls who were never seen without their men, but also boys who weren't seen without their women.

Lynnae: John Mikels was never seen without his girlfriend. Ryan Hayes also had a girlfriend for a while, but they broke up during his Senior Year.

Lindsey: Christine Major stole her boyfriend from the 10th grade girls.

Lynnae: Yea, Chris liked her boys young.

Lindsey: So does Brittany Roche.

Lynnae: She picked a sophomore over a senior who happened to be brothers.

Lindsey: There were also problems with older girls trying to steal boyfriends from girls in our grade.

Lynnae: Oh yea! The scandal of Jess Lisowski chasing after Mike Mekilo and Amy Ragni running after Nick Peach back in freshman year. Too bad both boys were in serious relationships with Melissa Keller and Kim Reider.

Lindsey: The relationships ended with Nick being slapped in the face by Kim and Melissa wished to never speak to Mike again.

Lynnae: I think Joe Strok and Lou O'Donnell had something going on too.

Lindsey: They shared a little kiss one night.

Lynnae: Caps came to know our grade fairly well.

Lindsey: Right, like when Adrienne Pisano had a little innocent get together at her house while her parents were gone away to Atlantic City. It ended with police cars and kids running from the house, I wonder what happened there?

Lynnae: Speaking of parties, poor Parakh Dani, the Econo Lodge was the place to be. You know what else can get you in trouble with the cops?

Lindsey: What?

Lynnae: Walking around the streets of Taylor at midnight dressed in a gorilla suit.

Lindsey: Who did that?

Lynnae: Dane Fallon. The cops got a call from a family who saw him. The police simply picked him up and took him home in the back of the car wearing his gorilla suit.

Lindsey: We had some 'bad boys' in our grade like Dan Grasso and Dustin Publik. I heard after having a rough late night Dustin would show up to track and place first.

Lynnae: Dan even looked the bad boy part with all his tattoos.

Lindsey: We also had a person who liked to gamble and play cards a little too much, Jamie Revella.

Lynnae: There were interesting things that happened in school also. Do you remember Alison Sabolewski?

Lindsey: Who?

Lynnae: You know, Alison, but she only showed up to school a few days out of the year.

Lindsey: Jeff Orzel came to school, but had the occasional bad day. One day he was sent to the office by Mr. Kennedy. Jeff mentioned something about a salad?...or tossing something?

Lynnae: That must have been awkward telling his mom why he was sent to the office.

Lindsey: That's not the only thing that happened to Jeff in school. Jonny Vishnesky pants poor Jeff in gym class.

Lynnae: Speaking of Jon, he was always causing problems with other people. One day he got the wrong person mad and ended up with his car window smashed.

Lindsey: Oh right, Ryan Fratzala threw a pebble at the window and it somehow shattered to pieces.

Lynnae: There were fights between other people too.

Lindsey: Yea, like the first week Calvin Pacholec came to our school and him and Jordan Thomas got into a fist fight during lunch.

Lynnae: I never saw the teachers in the cafe run that fast before to break up the fight.

Lindsey: Renae Gondella had her choice of words during Unit Show practice.

Lynnae: She fought for control against the pompon squad.

Lindsey: There was a fight after a football game too.

Lynnae: It must have been over the game or with Old Forge right?

Lindsey: No, it was between Eleesha Underwood and Brooke over Matt Robachik. I never saw someone's head get banged against a toilet that hard before.

Lynnae: Alicia Studdars also got in a fight with Chelsea Calarusso.

Lindsey: Hey, I think that was over Matt Roba too. Weird.

Lynnae: Football season always brought interesting things, whether it was drama with Old Forge or this year's team's amazing record of 1-9. Mike Freed was on the team, although he didn't get to play because of an injury.

Lindsey: Poor kid had problems in the head. It left a big mess to sweep up.

Lynnae: A lot of players seemed to get injured over the years.

Lindsey: Senior Year, Shawn Ward tore his ACL during the Old Forge basketball game and was out for the rest of the basketball and baseball season. With him gone, it wasn't the same for either team.

Lynnae: During his junior year, Danny Chorette broke his nose which may have benefited the team. His Hannibal mask seemed to scare off the other players.

Lindsey: What about Tayqon Briscoe? Didn't he play basketball?

Lynnae: Everyone thought he would and figured he'd be awesome at it, but he never went out for the team.

Lindsey: The track team also had a good season with the help of Melissa Woody.

nnae: And Bob Bracey who placed 4th in shot put.

ndsey: The baseball team had a rough season our senior year. Tim Jurak was on the team and I think they needed to order him a big helmet for his large head.

nnae: Angus Neary was a good player on the team. Unfortunately, he got suspended towards the end of the season for pouring some type of "apple juice" into a bottle in the back of the bus.

ndsey: Sarah Best played tennis for a while.

nnae: She unfortunately couldn't stick it out until the end.

ndsey: The golf team did well with the help of Mike Shinko and Stan Kania.

nnae: So did the girls softball team with players such as Kim Pham who fought to make it to the 3rd round of districts.

ndsey: The girls basketball team had a good year. Jess Plisko led the way and scored 1000 points with the help of other senior players Nikki Quick and Holly Reed.

nnae: Holly Reed was a good basketball player and nice. Remember when she made the top five for Homecoming Queen and had to actually wear a dress?

ndsey: Who was Homecoming Queen anyways?

nnae: Track star Kim Eastman.

ndsey: Oh yeah. Gary Wilson was her escort. He also became the "camera guy" by taking pictures of everyone senior year while working for Lori Beeber.

nnae: Matt Besecker wasn't a camera guy, but he was good with computers. That kid could google anything.

ndsey: Phillip Barhight also liked computers, but I don't think he was as good as Besecker.

nnae: Brian Hallock was good with technology in general. He helped Mrs. Chisdock and even video taped Karaoke Night.

ndsey: Karaoke Night was a huge success, even without the help of Danielle Babich, who supposedly is an amazing singer.

nnae: I would have loved to hear her sing.

ndsey: I know! Kerry Breymeyer sang though.

nnae: Yeeee, she was alright. My favorite was the song "Don't Speak."

ndsey: Who sang that?

nnae: Melissa Lulo, she was a nervous wreck, but she did great.

ndsey: I was in it too, I sang as June Carter with Chris Chlek as Johnny Cash.

nnae: I remember Chris Chlek, he couldn't keep his hands off any of the girls. He was very flirtatious.

ndsey: Elvis Presley was flirtatious too and Jored Jones played the part when he sang "Teddy Bear." He was so cute!

nnae: He was really cute when he fell asleep in class everyday too.

ndsey: I don't know how Mr. Evans never noticed. Bill Golembeski fell asleep in class a lot too.

nnae: Anyways, back to the Karaoke, Kevin Chudzinski sang "Should Have Been a Cowboy" in the show which seemed to be a crowd favorite.

ndsey: He was also a survivor in the Mock accident before prom along with Kerry Breymeyer, Kim Eastman, Nic Hoffman, and Alicia Mulea. Wes Jones was a fireman on the scene who came to help.

nnae: RJ Kwiatkowski should have come and helped too.

ndsey: Karla McKeel and Gary Wilson weren't as lucky as the others, good thing it was all fake. I think it opened everyone's eyes.

nnae: Karaoke Night wasn't the only show Senior Year; the units also performed. The most memorable dance was "It's Raining Men" with a few Senior Boys. Chud was in that along with Dan Gnall and Lou O'Donnell.

ndsey: Oh Yeah! I remember Dan tip-toed out on stage in a green tutu when he was the MC.

nnae: Do you remember the two new kids we got in our Senior Year?

ndsey: Yeah! Maksym Koshel and Roos Adella. Poor Roos didn't understand much English at first.

nnae: Didn't she sit with a bunch of girls and only one boy at lunch?

ndsey: How could we forget "Freed's Girls"; Melissa Evans, Stephanie Thomas, and Roos of course.

nnae: People also tried to disguise being seniors. Maybe they just couldn't deal with goodbye...

ndsey: Or deal with the Senior class, so Deanna Depaulo, Ashley Sweigart, Samantha McBride, Cassie Batcha, and Lynsey Peters sat on the junior side of the cafeteria.

nnae: Another person who sat at Freed's table was Tara Rhodes, who won class clown. No surprise there.

ndsey: Speaking of Class Night, Lauren Holovack and Amanda Revella won the Best Friends Award.

nnae: Jim Eastman won Chatterbox.

ndsey: No wonder! You couldn't get him to be quiet.

nnae: Alyssa Hamschek was a chatterbox herself, she always spoke her mind and didn't care who was listening.

ndsey: Do you remember Courtney Moran?

nnae: Didn't she talk so fast that you could only catch every other word of what she was trying to say?

ndsey: Yea, and you couldn't understand what her friend April Liszewski was trying to say either.

nnae: That was because April never tried to say much. I think she said about 10 words in high school.

ndsey: Jason Cali was also a shy person, but he was a very nice guy.

nnae: Amanda Hunsch won an award at Class Night for the most unique style.

ndsey: You know who else had a unique style, Angela Kern, Megan Richter, Ashley Cambell, Vanessa Kyttle, and Ashley Kovalik.

nnae: Yea, Ashley Kovalik was so unique she even dressed up as Cat in the Hat for Dr. Seuss's Birthday.

ndsey: We had other unique and creative people in our grade such as Laura Bushinski. She even went to Arts Alive.

nnae: Ashley Donatello showed her artistic side when she got caught in Mr. Hydusak's class drawing some exclusive pictures.

ndsey: Stacey Perry was unique too, not many people knew how to sign language as well as her.

nnae: Bob Davis even tried to get creative with his truck. It stood about 20ft in the air with those smoke stacks that were added to it!

ndsey: I wonder if Ricky Emily and Dave Mickavicz put them on for him?

nnae: Ricky and Dave should have also helped out someone else with his car.

ndsey: Who?

nnae: Jon Sovitch.

ndsey: Right, that thing was falling apart.

nnae: I don't know, but they were almost bigger than his truck! In high school, there were always kids trying to find themselves.

ndsey: Mark Matthews was a little confused over the years and couldn't decide whether he wanted a preppy or punk style, so finally in his Senior year he decided to wear collar shirts and a spike belt at the same time.

nnae: Frank Schindler didn't stand for the Pledge of Allegiance until he got accepted into the military. Maybe he had a turn around after reading the Bible.

ndsey: Jay Sandly finally found himself after six years of High School.

nnae: Michelle Mickavicz finally found her brain after years of searching.

ndsey: Mari Williams couldn't get over how much she was growing up so she tried to re-live Elementary memories by bringing in old pictures.

nnae: Michelle LaCapra tried finding the right hair color. She could never make up her mind. Bill Loss, however, used to be a loud mouth in class until senior year when he lost himself and became quiet.

ndsey: Dana Lawrence found herself to be the happiest person ever. Even when Dana yelled she did it with a smile.

nnae: Casey Cicale lost hold of the number one spot to Brittany Flaherty, and then lost the number two spot.

ndsey: Our grade was pretty close, but we didn't see some others as much because of vo-tech.

nnae: Dave Gnall, Gary Tokash, and Deanna Reed were three of the few that went to vo-tech.

ndsey: We also had a few people with some obsessions.

nnae: Joe Iacovazzi loved jelly fish and Jessica Pooch loved her books.

ndsey: Chris Smith loved snow boarding.

nnae: And Kyle Stengline was never seen without his skate board.

ndsey: I think Cedla Smith was obsessed with gum.

nnae: Why?

ndsey: She'd always walk in the halls asking everyone for a piece.

nnae: In Elementary School, Carry Robbins was always trying to find something by digging for gold.

ndsey: A lot of people in high school had jobs. Some of the hard workers were Anthony Vanlouvender, who worked at Price Chopper, and Stephanie Tippet, who worked so much that she practically lived at Dunkin'.

nnae: I almost forgot all that happened back in high school!

ndsey: Me too, it was great talking about everything again. I think the nurse is calling you.

nnae: Yea, well it was good seeing you and re-living all of the memories. Keep in touch!

ndsey: I will. Bye!

Scene, Mall @ Steamtown May 2016

Ashley Donatello: We've met, usually familiar. Do I know you from somewhere?

Kimberly Pham: Yeah, and you're Ashley Donatello? I graduated high school with you ten years ago.

AD: OMG yeah, you're Kimberly Pham. I remember you. What did you end up doing?

KP: I became a special ed teacher. What did you do?

AD: I became a math teacher. I heard Lindsey Trolia and Brian Smith were like math nerds like me too!

KP: Speaking of nerds, what happened to Brian Halberd?

AD: I think he's still following Mrs. Chislock around.

KP: What about Megan Wickizer?

AD: I heard she works at the Humana Society and is a volunteer for the homeless. What about Jay Sandy?

KP: Oh, he's still trying to pass Kennedy's class along with Christine and is still in Mr. Charette.

AD: No, actually Christine is still living at home waiting for her boyfriend to graduate high school.

KP: Speaking of Mr. Kennedy's class, I think Billy Calembski is still stuck out in the back and Alyssa Homschek became a psychology teacher and is a big fan of power point.

AD: Yeah, I heard Ed Braggstein is up. Ted now works at the library.

KP: Sam McBride is now a cop for the Brian.

AD: Yeah, I heard she recently arrested Sam Bowitch, who was in a car accident and caught stealing mulch again but hired Ashley Swingart as his lawyer to defend him.

KP: Thank God Nikki Quick finally got rid of him.

AD: Yeah, she is now a pharmacist and works with Doctor Marissa Wehrly.

KP: Whatever happened to Michelle LaCapra, Freesia Underwood, Stacy Tippet, and Michelle Babich?

AD: Oh, they're still up Cosmo's waiting to meet the man of their dreams.

KP: Speaking of boys, did Joe Strok, Kevin Chudzinski, Jared Jones, and Chris Chis continue with their dancing careers?

AD: Well, Chad still wishes he was a cowboy. Joe now owns the Riverdale Dental team, hoping to beat the (1-9) record. Jared owns Waitress Man and Chris now owns a Ferrari's, and a Lamborghini.

KP: Didn't Chlek become a pharmacist, like Jess Plisko?

AD: Yeah, I think so. Are Jess and Jon Vishnisky still together?

KP: No, Jess got sick of paying for him all the time.

AD: Speaking of couples, Adrienne Pisano and Jordan Thomas finally got married, but he still denies the fact that they are even together.

KP: Yeah, and George Toth and Maria Aguilar got married and had 6 kids.

AD: I heard Byron Webb, 'aka' Bevis, has been married since graduation. Yeah, and Amber Scarnato takes care of her daughter Nevaeh.

KP: Did Mike Mekilo ever finish his book about his life?

AD: Yeah, it finally got published.

KP: What was it called again?

AD: Still Not Getting Girls. And I heard Laura Bushinski illustrated the pictures in it.

KP: Oh, is that about Melissa Keller.

AD: Probably. Did you hear Melissa Keller created a diet plan?

KP: No, what's it called?

AD: "Starving yourself skinny." Speaking of books, Mike Shimko also won the best selling book award.

KP: What was his book called?

AD: 1001 Bill Paker Jokes.

KP: Yeah, Calvin Pacheco was on MTV's MTV2 to be made into an official pimp.

AD: Speaking of being a pimp, Jay O'Leary is still trying to be a manager.

KP: Did you hear how Matt Bassler now drives the tow truck, you know the one he hit.

AD: Speaking of car accidents, remember when G.J. Kania got into his car into a tow truck, at a red light.

KP: Oh yeah, and when Amanda Leitch hit a fire truck.

AD: Did Mike Freed ever get his permit?

KP: I don't know, but I saw Westley drive with K.J. Czerwinski driving around in a big red truck.

AD: You mean a fire truck?

KP: Oh yeah, and I saw J.J. Bianca driving a UPS truck. Anyways, did you hear Nick Pecuch, Angus Neary, and Shawn Ward all tried out for the Yankees baseball team?

AD: Yeah, and only Shawn Ward made it with his torn ACL.

KP: Did you hear Tim Cravette is still trying to be a super athlete and be pro in all the fields.

AD: Yeah, but he only coaches middle school football, and Tim Jurriak, 'aka' Junk, is now an athletic director.

(Information about the book)

This is the forty-fourth edition of the Riverside High School yearbook, the Viking.

This year, the theme began its development in September of 2005, and was finalized by the end of October by Co-Editors Renae Gondella and Dana Lawrence. The cover was designed by the Yearbook Staff and Walsworth Publishing Company. It is a two color custom Litho cover with gloss lamination. The two inks used on the cover are Black and Navy Blue 289. We also have Matte Silver HF 904 foil on the cover for the Hollywood sign and on the spine.

The yearbook was printed by Walsworth Publishing Company, 306 N. Kansas Ave., Marcelline, Missouri, 64658. The book was printed on 80# Legend Gloss paper, with sixteen pages of four color printing. The endsheets were custom designed by the senior class, and printed differently front and back. The paper used is Standard White Endleaf, printed with one spot color: black. The sales representative was Vicki Simpkins.

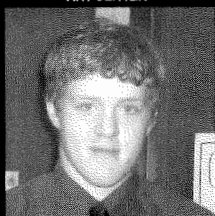

The book was submitted in segments of approximately 40 pages, with deadlines in December 2005, April, May, and June 2006. After each deadline, the staff received one set of proofs on which to make corrections and the proofs were sent back to the plant via Federal Express. The yearbook was finalized on June 13, 2006.

The yearbook contained Maximo font in different sizes and weights. Layouts and stories were typed in Adobe InDesign CS2. The photographers used digital cameras to shoot all assignments. Any hard copy photographs were sent to the plant and professionally scanned by Walsworth.

Since there is no budget for the Yearbook, it is the responsibility of the senior class to raise all money necessary to complete the publication. 121 copies of the yearbook were received, and approximately 80 copies were sold for $65-$100 each.

Recent Awards: The 2005 yearbook received a third place award from the American Scholastic Press Association.

"Congratulations Renae (NayNer) Gondella"

We cannot believe how time has flown by and your now graduating high school. We are so proud of you! We are eager to watch you as your life unfolds. You have great gifts: talent, time and energy. Use these gifts for future challenges and professional pursuits.

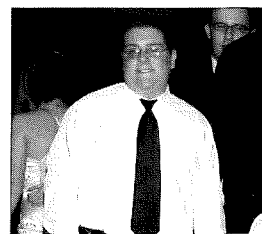

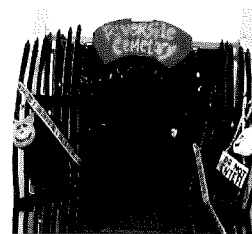

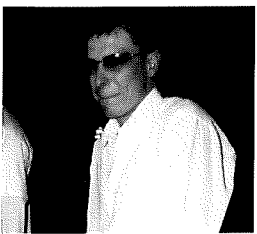

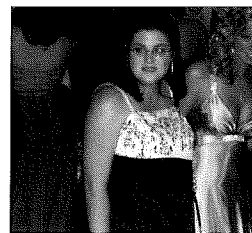

Go forward and don't settle for anything but the best: your Dad is buying! We are behind you all the way!

Lastly remember that in the slight chance you may run into any trouble- call us before you call your Dad!

YOU GO GIRL!!

We Love You Paul and Michelle Watkins

Dana,
Good luck and Congratulations!
Love, Mrs. Celuck, Mrs. Janesko and Renae

To Renae Gondella

On May 20, 1988 the nurse handed me a little bundle of joy and said here's Daddy's Little Girl.

And I Smiled.

When you were 3, you would tell me that I was your boyfriend and in your little wedding dress you would sing "Going to the Chapel" to me.

And I Smiled.

I don't know where the time went. You're 18 and getting out of high school.

And I Smile.

Wherever life takes you, or even if you are known by different names, like teacher, wife, and mom, not one thing will never change you'll always be DADDY'S LITTLE GIRL.

And I'll Smile.

Love DAD

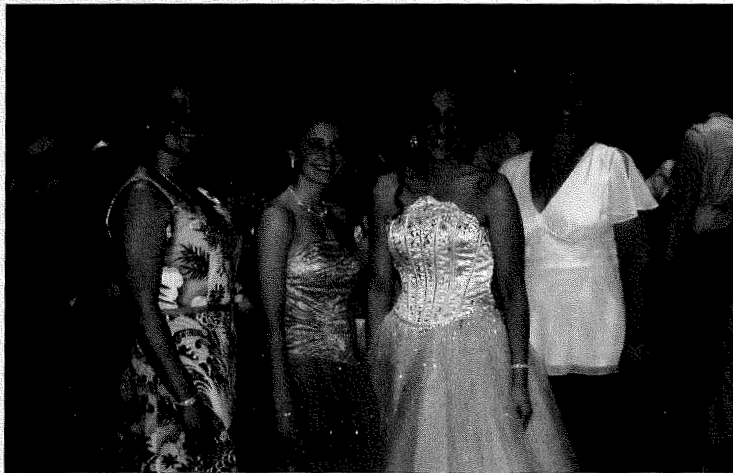

Deb, Teddi & Grandma Salva

The Reviews

The reviews are in and this year's production of the Viking was a complete success. The actors and actresses came together to perform what will be considered for many years to come, their best performance. The young and aspiring actors will definitely be successful.

Thats a Wrap!

Manager, Lisa Celuck, star performers Dana Lawrence and Renae Gonadella and Manager Chris Janesko take time out of their hectic schedules to pose for a picture at a recent gala event.

When interviewed both managers commented that they were blessed with such extraordinary workers and it was a pleasure in assisting them this year.
